July 12, 2010

Dear Friends,

On June 26-27th, my family accompanied me to Life Point Community Church (Fuquay, NC). As youth minister at Kennibec Baptist Church (Angier, NC), Nathan Redinger has hosted numerous Cross Culture events over the years. It is a pleasure to see Nathan serving as Sr. Pastor of this brand new fellowship. Typically new churches begin as unhealthy splits, however Nathan was SENT OUT with his former church's blessing, approximately 40 members, and monthly financial support. Glory to God! Following a savory cookout with several church members, we had the privilege to share the ministry and vision of CCM with them. The next morning I preached at LPC. The church is now considering regular financial support for Cross Culture. Please keep this in your prayers, because we always need more partners!

This Sunday evening, we will begin our 4th annual mission camp at Ronceverte, WV. Approximately 48 teenagers, chaperones, and CCM staff will be arriving from North Carolina churches to serve as our mission team this year. Our team will run a children's day camp and serve on other projects including manual labor at Davis-Stuart home for teens and ministry at a nearby nursing home. We will be training teenagers to fulfill James 1:26 by humbly serving "orphans and widows" for God's glory.

As soon as camp ends on Friday (23rd), I will be on my way to Greensboro. The following day, Chris Foster and I will head to Elizabethtown, NC where I will be speaking 3 sessions at an associational youth event. I will be sharing our ONE LOVE curriculum and preaching at one of the associational churches that Sunday. The church to who I will be preaching happens to have Rev. Michael Horton as Associate Pastor. Michael served with CCM as a teenager several years ago. He is also the son of our former pastor, David Horton. What a blessing it will be to minister with Michael again.

Please keep these events in your prayers. We need you to "hold the line" while we rappel into the caverns of the enemy to rescue this generation from darkness and deliver them into the light of Jesus Christ!

A servant of Christ,

Brother Dale
